<s.butterfill@warwick.ac.uk>

Breakdown of Assessment

30% of the assessment will be based on three in-term assignments (of 500 words each, 1500 words in total).

70% of the assessment will be based on a 2000 word essay

Writing Drafts

For each of the three in-term assignments, you will have an opportunity to submit a draft before a weekly seminar, and to provide a peer-review of another student's draft.

Once the module starts, please sign up here to submit drafts:

Submitting a draft will enable your work to be discussed in a seminar before you submit the final version; it will also enable you to have your drafts reviewed by others.

You can revise your work in the light of discussion and the comments you receive.

Feedback

All feedback on the in-term assignments will be provided before submission through

1. discussion of drafts in seminars;
2. peer-reviews of drafts; and,
3. in exceptional cases, written comments from your seminar tutor.

Feedback on the 70% essay will be provided in writing after you have submitted it.
